

Exhibits - Edmonton Spring National Show 2017

Competitive Exhibits

	Category, Frame #		Category, Frame #
Alex Liusz Moser, St. Albert, AB Time of Dinosaurs My exhibit is about dinosaur stamps.	Youth, #1	Donald Wilson, Calgary, AB Australian Mail to the UK to 1891 Development of postal markings, routes, and rates from Australia to the UK; from 1821 stampless to pre-UPU rates of 1891.	Postal History, #23-30
Sandra Freeman, Calgary, AB Development of Bolivian Airmail 1905-1945 Growth of a pioneer airline into an established institution. The second oldest South American airline to keep its name throughout its development.	Aerophilately, #2-7	Sam Chiu, North York, ON Detained in Hong Kong and the ones that got away The effect of the Japanese invasion of Hong Kong on mail before and after the invasion.	One Frame, #31
Walter Herdzik, Calgary, AB Northern Rhodesia to North America 1925-1964 A display of postal history covers mailed from Northern Rhodesia to Canada and the United States for the period 1925-1953 and 1963-1964.	Postal History, #8-10	Earle Covert, Raymond, AB Canadian Centennial Postal Stationery We show regular envelopes and postcards including the revalues, the private order envelopes, postcards, self-mailers and multiple forms.	General, #32-39
Hal Kellett, Saskatoon, SK The Military in Canada 1812-1905 The history of early British and Canadian Military in Canada shown through the covers and letters of soldiers, including mail routes and rates.	General, #11-14	Earle Covert, Raymond, AB 1991 Flag Stamp on Postal Stationery We show the envelopes and postcards from the three users of this stamp design	One Frame, #40
Jim Taylor, Calgary, AB Continental Drift and Plate Tectonics Continental Drift is explained; Wegener first used the term in 1912 and his theory evolved into the science of plate tectonics.	Thematic, #15-20	Jon Johnson, Calgary, AB WWI Canadian Army Nursing Sisters Serving Overseas Postal history of WWI Canadian army nursing sisters serving overseas is displayed through mail sent or received by 89 (3%) of them.	Display, #41-45
Hal Kellett, Saskatoon, SK Force 'C' - The Canadian Army in Hong Kong - 1941-1945 The postal history of Force 'C' Service until surrender. Mail to and from POW camps in Hong Kong and Japan.	General, #21-22	Sandra Freeman, Calgary, AB Lamponing the Three Axis Amigos Patriotic reciprocal propaganda exhibit depicting the animosities toward the Axis or the Allies in the forms of vignettes, posters or postcards which were reprinted.	Patriotic or Event Covers, #46-50

Category, Frame #

Frame #

Donna Trathen, Calgary, AB Picture Postcard, #51-55
Christina Broom, her work as a photographer
This thematic postcard exhibit will show life in London, England (1903-1939) photographed by Christina Broom, considered to be Great Britain's first female press photographer.

Earle Covert, Raymond, AB General, #56-60
Religious Groups Using Illustrated Permits
Fourteen religions charities using various illustrated permits to promote their work.

Jim Taylor, Calgary, AB Traditional, #61-65
St. Pierre & Miquelon Definitives, Airs and Dues Series of 1947
A traditional exhibit of the 32-stamp series issued in 1947.

Sam Chiu, North York, ON General, #66-74
Development of Chinese Imperial Post Office 1897-99: transformation from Customs Post Office.
The development of the first Chinese National Post Office are shown for its 25 post office during its first two years of operations and its forerunners.

Walter Herdzik, Calgary, AB Aerophilately, #75-80
How do they know it's Airmail?
A colourful display of worldwide commercial mail that travelled by airplanes showing the various markings that identify it as airmail.

Court of Honor

David Piercey, Edmonton, AB #81-88
Steamship Mail in the early Decimal Period Of Newfoundland

Kelly Liusz Moser, St. Albert, AB #89-92
100 Years of Christmas in Canada: 1898-1998

Kelly Liusz Moser, St. Albert, AB #93-95
Celebrating the life of her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II on Canadian Stamps